Part 3: DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

All claims require documentation that you (the Claimant) were either the Owner, Renter, or a Dependent at each residence you listed in Part 2.

Do not send original documents. Documents will not be returned.

WERE YOU (THE CLAIMANT) AN OWNER, RENTER OR DEPENDENT?

You were an Owner if you had either legal or equitable title to the property.

You were a Renter if you paid money or provided other value (for example, services, home furnishings or other things of value to the household) in exchange for the right to live at the property.

You were a Dependent if you (1) were without financial means to live independently, (2) depended on an Owner or Renter for financial support, and (3) Physically Resided with the Owner or Renter at the Eligible Residence (as his or her principal residence) during the Class Period. The Settlement Administrator will presume you were a Dependent if you can document that you were a child, grandchild, parent, spouse or grandparent of the Owner or Renter.

A. Proof You were an Owner/Renter of the Property

If you were an Owner or Renter, please submit sufficient evidence to demonstrate that you were an Owner or Renter of each property you listed above. Below are types of evidence that can be used as proof of your status as an Owner or Renter (in order of preference). If you claim you lived at multiple qualifying addresses during between April 24, 2007 and December 31, 2017, please include separate documentation for each address you claim.

- Property Deed or Purchase Contract; or
- Mortgage; or
- A lease or rental agreement identifying you (the Claimant) as a tenant of the property, or
- A utility company customer record or bill for gas, electricity, telephone, cable, internet services, or other utilities at the property, dated during the Class Definition Period; or
- Bank records (canceled checks, check images, etc.) showing that you (the Claimant) paid for rent, gas, electricity, telephone, cable, internet services, or other utilities at the property, dated during the Class Definition Period; or
- A statement signed under penalty of perjury, from someone who did not live with you (the Claimant), stating that you (the Claimant) lived at the property and provided money or other value or services (groceries, home furnishings, house cleaning or maintenance, care for a family member, etc.) in exchange for the right to live at the property. A sample declaration can be obtained by visiting www.GPCclassaction.com or contacting the Settlement Administrator; or
- Other documentation the Settlement Administrator deems reliable to show Owner or Renter status.

B. Proof the Claimant was a Dependent of the Property Owner/Renter

If you were a Dependent of an Owner or Renter, you can document your dependent status in one of two ways.

1. The first way is to prove that you (the Claimant) are the Child/Grandchild/Spouse/ Parent/Grandparent of the Owner or Renter of the Property. To document this, please provide one or more of the following:
 - Birth Certificate; or
 - Adoption Decree; or
 - Marriage License or Marriage Certificate; or
 - Official School Record; or
 - Court Documentation; or
 - Baptismal Certificate or other church or religious record indicating family status; or
 - Statement signed under penalty of perjury from a parent that dependent child is their child over whom they have legal custody; or
 - Statement signed under penalty of perjury from someone who did not live with you (the Claimant) and who has personal knowledge of the family relationship. A sample declaration can be obtained by visiting GPCclassaction.com or contacting the Settlement Administrator; or
 - Other document the Settlement Administrator deems reliable to prove the relationship.
2. The second way to prove you (the Claimant) were a dependent of the Owner/Renter of the property is to prove that you lacked financial means to live independently and depended on the Owner or Renter for financial support. To document this, please provide one or more of the following:
 - Financial records showing your dependency on the Owner(s)/Renter(s); or
 - A Statement signed under penalty of perjury from someone who did not live with you (the Claimant) and who has personal knowledge of the relationship. A sample declaration can be obtained by visiting www.GPCclassaction.com or contacting the Settlement Administrator; or
 - Other document the Settlement Administrator deems reliable to prove your dependent status.

Note: If the Owner/Renter of the property in question is not submitting a claim form for himself or herself, then you (the Dependent) must also provide documentation that that person owned or rented the property in question.

C. Proof of How Long You Lived at the Property or Properties

In Part 2, you listed the dates you lived in each Eligible Property. In order to receive a payment, you must provide documentation that you lived at the given property for each year you claim. Your claim will only be approved for years that are properly documented.

If you were the Owner or Renter of the property, please provide one or more of the following to document your residence for each year the Claimant lived at the property:

- Any tax form showing that you listed the property as your primary residence (you may redact income information); or
- A lease or rental agreement identifying you as a tenant at that location during the period of residence you listed; or
- Any bill (for example, rent bill, credit card bill, utility bill, tax bill) showing your billing address at the property for the dates listed; or

- Other document the Settlement Administrator deems reliable to establish the dates of residence.

If you lived at the property as a dependent of the Owner or Renter (either as Spouse/Child/Grandchild/Parent/Grandparent or as any other dependent) please provide one or more of the following to document residence for each year you claim you lived at the property:

- Custody agreement or other court document showing family relationship; or
- Tax form(s) showing the listed property as your primary residence; or
- A change of address request to the address provided, approved by the Post Office; or
- A statement signed under penalty of perjury from someone who did not live with you, attesting to your residence at the property during the dates listed. A sample declaration can be obtained by visiting www.GPCclassaction.com or contacting the Settlement Administrator; or
- Other document the Settlement Administrator deems reliable to establish the dates of residence.
